CONTENTS

Special Issue: AfroNordic Feminisms

Guest Editors: Jasmine Kelekay and Benjamin Mier-Cruz

Foreword v
NANA OSEI-KOFI AND MONICA L. MILLER

Introduction: AfroNordic Feminisms—Perspectives, Praxis, and Possibilities 1
JASMINE KELEKAY AND BENJAMIN MIER-CRUZ

Conditions and Possibilities for AfroNordic Feminist Knowledge Production

AfroSwedish Feminisms: An Intergenerational Dialogue 36
JASMINE KELEKAY, LENA SAWYER, AND YLVA HABEL

Cracks in the Nordic Exceptionalist Foundations: Exploring the (Im)Possibilities for AfroNordic Feminist Knowledge-Making in Academia 58
GABRIELLA ISADORA MUASYA

Joining in Black Study: A Black/Queer Ethnography Alongside African Norwegian Youth 76
ODA-KANGE MIDTVÅGE DIALLO

Belonging, Identity, and Collective Healing

Care Is How We Remember: Memory as a Site of Healing in the Good Hair Day Collective 96
NIA SULLIVAN, SAIDA MÄKI-PENTTILÄ, AND JASMIN SLIMANI

"They Need Someone to Put Their Hair in Order": AfroFinns, Black Racial Isolation, and Identity Formation 121
MAÏMOUNA MATIKAINEN-SOREAU

Exceptional Silence: Adoption, Emotional Service, and Resistance 148
ELLEN NYMAN

Downloaded from by guest on September 15, 2026. Copyright 2026

Art and the Politics of Representation

AfroNordic Feminism in the 1920s: Exploring Transnational Literary Histories through Nella Larsen 156
IIDA PÖLLÄNEN

Trickster's Tears: AfroNordic Affective Politics and Critical Internet Aesthetics in Lydia Östberg Diakité's Cry Baby 176
NINA CRAMER

Chipping Away at the Same Iceberg: An AfroNordic Feminist Conversation between Faith Adiele and Lolá Ákínmádé 210
FAITH ADIELE AND LOLÁ ÁKÍNMÁDÉ

Downloaded from by guest on September 15, 2026. Copyright 2026